I shall at this lime only make one more everact, trom a letter of H. C. Symonds, relating to the hog order. He says:

I sent Ciptain Fry to General Barbridge, at Lexington. Keatucky, with a view to getting a particular order lessed, such as I deemed necessary for me to ascente the orders I mad revalved from the Department in reference to packing pork in Keatucky.

At un request, and as I rappeaded, General Burbridge based the order, and is novel, appointed all the agents when I recognized as anibar and to parchase bogs in second of the five room.
